

Transfer of account ownership

(Bonus account/Future Fund from adult to child)

For the ownership of the Bonus Account/Future Fund to be transferred into the child's own name this form will need to be completed in full as follows:

Section A:

Account holder's declaration - this section is to be completed and signed by the account holder that is being removed from the account and transferring ownership to the child

Section B:

Child's declaration - this section is to be completed and signed by the child who is becoming the sole owner of the account

Section C:

Parent or guardian's declaration - this section is to be completed and signed by the child's parent or guardian to enable our checks to be undertaken

To The Co-operative Bank p.l.c.:

Section A: Account holder's declaration

I agree that you may:

- transfer account number and any credit balance on the account held by me on behalf of (child's name) into the child's own name
- credit to the account the amount of any deposits which may have been made to the account held on the child's behalf, but which are still in transit to you
- debit the account with any withdrawals on the account held on the child's behalf which still have to be presented
- I understand that once the account is transferred I will no longer have access to the account or to any funds held in it.

Your information: It is essential you read carefully the notice headed 'Using your personal information' provided with the terms and conditions of the account(s). This explains how we will use your information. The Data Controller is The Co-operative Bank p.l.c.

Credit reference & fraud prevention agencies: We may make searches about you at credit reference agencies who will supply us with credit information as well as information from the Electoral Register. The agencies will record details of any search whether or not this application proceeds. We may use credit scoring methods to assess this application and to verify your identity. Credit searches and other information provided to us and/or the credit reference agencies about you and anyone with whom you are linked financially may be used by us and other companies or organisations if credit decisions are made about you or anyone with whom you are linked financially or other members of your household. This information may also be used for debt tracing and the prevention of money laundering as well as the management of your account(s). In addition, we will ask you to provide physical forms of identification and/or we may telephone you to confirm your identity.

To prevent or detect fraud or to assist in verifying your identity we may make searches of our records and at fraud prevention agencies who will supply us with information. We may also pass information to financial and other organisations involved in fraud prevention to protect ourselves and our customers from theft and fraud. If you give us false or inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we will record this. We, The Co-operative Bank p.l.c., and other companies or organisations may use this information if financial or motor, household, credit, life or any other insurance facility decisions are made about you or others at your address(es). It may also be used for tracing and claims assessments and verifying identity.

By stating a financial link with another party, you are also declaring that you are entitled to:

- disclose information about your joint applicant and/or anyone else referred to by you
- authorise us to search, link and/or record information at credit reference agencies about you and/or anyone else referred to by you.

Information held about you by the credit reference agencies may already be linked to records relating to anyone with whom you have a financial relationship, such as a joint account. For the purposes of this application you may be treated as financially linked and your application will be assessed with reference to any linked records.
